ERIC PRESCOTT KAY

VERDICT OF THE JURY

U.S. DISTRICT COURT NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS FILED FEB 17 2022 CLERK, U.S. DISTRICT COURT By: _____ Deputy

Count One:

As to the offense charged in count one of the superseding indictment, we, the jury, find the defendant, Eric Kay Guilty.
(Guilty or Not Guilty)

Count Two:

As to the offense charged in count two of the superseding indictment, we, the jury, find the defendant, Eric Kay Guilty.
(Guilty or Not Guilty)

If you have found the defendant, Eric Kay, not guilty as to count two, please notify the court security officer that you are finished with your deliberations. The presiding juror should sign page two of the verdict form, but do not answer the question on page two.

If you have found the defendant, Eric Kay, guilty as to count two, you must answer the question on page two of the verdict form, and then the presiding juror should sign the verdict form.

Do you find beyond a reasonable doubt that Tyler Skaggs's death resulted from the use of the specific fentanyl that Eric Kay distributed to him in the Northern District of Texas?
